

BACKGROUND

The Portuguese Navy Tall Ship Sagres will be carrying out a Circumnavigation tour in 2020. This mission is part of the Celebration Programme for the Fifth Centenary of Fernão de Magalhães Circumnavigation.

NAVIGATION PLANNING

The voyage planning recreates the Circumnavigation commanded by the Portuguese navigator Fernão de Magalhães (2019-2022) and includes:

- Presence in Tokyo 2020 during the Olympic Games;
- Participation in the celebrations of the 500 years of the Discovery of the Strait of Magellan in Punta Arenas, Chile, in October 18th-23th, 2020;
- Navigation in company of ESPS Juan Sebastian Elcano during part of the voyage;
- Presence in cities of the Global Network of Magellan Cities;
- Presence in cities of the Portuguese diaspora.

During 371 days, the ship's mission will focus on sea training for first and second-year Naval Academy cadets, as well as, on port calls and economic diplomacy activities.
